#findyourpace

The largest park in Sheffield, Graves is a brilliant mix of open parkland, natural and semi-natural woodlands, with an animal farm to boot.

Starting at the pavilion on Cobnar Road, the shorter green route follows mainly tarmac paths, with some gravelled sections. Pace yourself for the occasional gradual climbs, look out over the lakes, and take a breather in the lovely Rose Garden Cafe.

The 4km blue route goes in the opposite direction to the 2.5km route, covering undulating, varied terrain – watch out for mud on the unsurfaced tracks. Enjoy the mix of running in both woodland and parkland, as well as the amazing views out towards the Peak District.
